Hello {FIRST_NAME}

As a subscriber to our newsletter, you will have advance notice of upcoming specials before we make a public announcement, you can take advantage of this "heads up" to select a cabin for your stay at a deal not available to the public for several more weeks. If you are thinking of coming up to Blue Ridge this spring, now would be the time to make your plans.

Last spring, my two youngest sons and I went out hiking every day in the spring, to discover what new wildflowers we could find. Every day, we saw something new which was not there the day before (some flowers we found were only there for a day or two before they disappeared).

Early Spring, when the Dogwoods are in bloom is unbelievable! Walking in the woods in the very early morning, the Dogwood trees are electric, their display just jumps out at you! Later as the Azaleas, Mountain Laurel and Rhododendrons put on their show, it is spectacular as well!
