Greetings from Blue Ridge!

We used to see a commercial for a wine from Jamaica. In the commercial, there was a bus stopped because of a chicken in the road, and a bicycle stuck behind the bus. The Jamaican on the bike said, "Total gridlock Mon". That's what I say many times when I have to 'jump' out in traffic on the 4-lane here in Blue Ridge. For those of you who haven't visited recently, many times you can pull up to the 4-lane, look to the left and right, and not see a single car or truck in either direction.

If you are caught up in your own version of Life In The Fast Lane, maybe it is time for you to plan your visit to Blue Ridge this fall. Come experience our version of Total Gridlock and leave the fast lane behind, for a little while.

Our Newest Cabin - Sundance Mountain 4/3

If you are looking for a cabin with a long-range mountain view, this is the cabin for you. Sundance Mountain is quickly becoming a favorite, our first guests in this cabin called back the day after they departed and reserved the cabin for Christmas!

Because this is a new cabin to the cabin rental market, there are not many return guests yet, so you should have an easy opportunity to make a reservation to stay here!
